

The Week End..

By
Belle BurkeIllustration by John C. H. GrabillCUSTOM.

Custom is most perfect when it goes with the times; that's why we call education.—Bacon.

Habit, if not resisted, soon becomes necessary.

Custom is a violent and treacherous school mistress. She, little by little, shys and misleads, clogs in her path the way to truth, holding him by this gentle and insidious beginning, with the aid of time, fixed and established. In, she them—her—them—against and into submission—against which we have no more courage, nor the power so much as to lift up our eyes.—Montaigne.

LIFE.

Give me a taste of life!

Not the taste of a sated wife;

Not the taste of a sated bread;

Not the grape of an untiled wine;

The life that is really life!

That comes from the soul!

But the taste of the soul and spirit,

In the world of things, are.

Give me the whole of life!

The joy, the hope and the pain;

The struggle whose end is strength;

The less that is infinite gain;

The life that is real life!

Not the taste of a fruitless rest;

Give me the sun and the storm;

The calm and the white sea crest;

Give me the heart of life!

To live in the world, to die in the world;

With the taste that is sown and dies.

Lifts a harvest over the soil;

Where beauty and truth are one;

When the right must have its way;

With the taste of the heart for stay;

And the starlight heralds the day.

Give me the soul of life!

The muscle and mind to dare;

No luxury's lap for my head;

No idylic dream to share;

Whether by pick or plane;

Whether by tongue or pen.

Let me do a man's work among men.

Let me do a woman's work among women.

Charles P. Claeys.

NEW YEAR'S THOUGHTS.

The New Year is with us. The other night I made a definite decision to leave the old. And the throne of time is never for a moment unoccupied. With his dying breath did the old King say: "I am the King of the new, and bid me accept him and pay him homage."

He comes to us as a newborn babe, seeking to win your love and help, with the questioning light of childhood in his eyes. We may nod him off to sleep, but he will grow. It won't belong before he is big and strong; yes, he will even assume the rôle of the father.

We will let him be his own father, and he will hand us off his gifts and favors as it pleases him.

Whilst we plan for the future, we wait for what he holds of joy or sorrow. Will we have triumphs? or mere face it? Or shall we complete our tasks?

Or shall we start out with us blind? Many who started out with us blithely last year are not here now.

More important than the kind of questions we are in thought of how we are going to spend our days and hours in this new year. Is it not so that the world is a place where much money we are going to make, what triumphs we are going to achieve, what gifts we are going to fall to our lot? It is to decide what kind of persons we are going to be through it all, what sort of characters we will be, what we will do, and how much of helpfulness to other people we are daily infusing into our world.

Here is an appropriate New Year wish, written by William Oliver:

May Heaven's love
Shine from above,
On thee, and thine.

Its joys untold,
Each day unfold,
And round thee twine;

The coming year
Yield, for thy cheer,
Life's sweetest wine.

Each dawning day
Shed o'er thy way
A light divine.

To lead thee on;
And heaven's own;
With smile benign.

Dance, all care
And sadness fair,
Forever bright!

OPEN UP.

Watch you make a mistake, own up! I don't mean I don't stop it, try to slide out of it, when faced with it. I mean—don't wait to be found out.

Own up right away—
Go to the top and say:

"I'm afraid I've made a mistake about this. I'm sorry. Fill it in again. What can I do to make it right?"

You usually find he'll be fairly decent about it. You can't expect him to be pleased with you, but trust he'll appreciate your frankness.

If you leave it for him to find out for himself, he'll come down on you like a ton of coal. But if you go to him and say, "I'm afraid I've made a mistake about this. I'm sorry. Fill it in again. What can I do to make it right?"

He'll usually give you a smile, and say, "Well, you're a good fellow, I suppose." That's all he'll say, but he'll be pleased with you, and you'll be pleased with him.

Remember, the secret of success is to be friendly to people, and to be friendly to the secret of success.

TORTURED BY TERRIBLE ECZEMA

Suffered Three Years Until She Tried
FRUIT-A-TIVES

been doing something that isn't quite playing the game—own up!

If you try and stick it out that you're right when you know you are, you're going to be condemned again and again. You're going to feel uncomfortable about it, and it will let you down in the estimation of other people.

It's better to do it, and it's better to take it. Nobody does it.

If you make a mistake, begin again with a clean slate.

Custom is a violent and treacherous school mistress. She, little by little, shys and misleads, clogs in her path the way to truth, holding him by this gentle and insidious beginning, with the aid of time, fixed and established. In, she them—her—them—against and into submission—against which we have no more courage, nor the power so much as to lift up our eyes.—Montaigne.

TACTLESS TEENA.

Perhaps you met her during the Christmas shopping. Or did she only cross your path?

Then there was what she called shopping. Usually she looks after all the things and then mothered you, but Teena loved to saunter forth to market, or to the stores, especially on a Saturday afternoon. She was a little bit of a tomboy, but she was demure and the men extra busy.

"Usually, just had a few little commissions, and all sorts of fun from shopping," she said. "I think I'm getting along pretty well."

"Fruit-a-tives cooled the blood and removed the cause of the disease, and 'Sootha-Salva' completed the cure."

Dame PETER LAMARRE
Pointe St. Pierre, P.Q.
"I think it my duty to tell you how suffered my medicines has been for me."

"I suffered for three years with termites. I consulted several doctors and they did not do me any good."

"Then, I used one box of 'Sootha-Salva' and my condition got better. My hands are now clear."

The pain is gone and there is no return. I think it is marvelous what the medicine has done for me."

"I am still having a few little commissions, and all sorts of fun from shopping," she said. "I think I'm getting along pretty well."

Now Teena being a girl with plenty of leisure, had never considered how busy other people were on their Saturday afternoons for Christmas, or any other time, for that matter. Even though she might be intending to spend any time at home, she would have to go to the market, and the shop, like the likes of the things "in" now, and she would go to get a few gifts for her.

Teena, however, had a few little commissions, and all sorts of fun from shopping, and she was a little bit of a tomboy, but she was demure and the men extra busy.

"It's as good as being at a tea-party," she said, "especially when you get home and sit down and have a nice little chat with some friends." It saves quite a lot of time, too, and I had planned to go to the post office, and the grocery store, and getting the price of things, and asking the price of things, and what large orders they left, it was only good business to be polite to things down there for her inspection."

Teena, in her youthful innocence, hadn't an idea of the version of the Christmas story, was giving her family the facts of the same affair.

"Oh, my dear," she was saying, "I have had such a trying morning. You know, I had to go to the post office on a Saturday morning when the stores are so crowded. They had a lot of things, too, and I had planned to go to the post office, and the grocery store, and getting the price of things, and asking the price of things, and what large orders they left, it was only good business to be polite to things down there for her inspection."

RESCUED FOLK AT BELLE ISLE

Little Steamer Seal Saves
Marooned Party.

Were in Dire Need, but None Sick.

Quebec, Jan. 2.—"All hands successfully taken off Belle Isle, and now safe on board the steamer Seal, bound for Newfoundland."

This laconic yet reassuring message was received yesterday night from a lower Gulf village, which reported getting the message from Belle Isle.

"Early this week it was reported that the steamer Seal had been marooned on the south coast of Newfoundland, and that she was attempting to reach the safety of the mainland, keeping a short distance from shore, on account of getting the message from Belle Isle."

THE MUNICIPAL VOTE

Although the business and management of the affairs of this city touches very closely the well-being and pocket of the citizens, very little interest is shown in these matters by the average citizen. This was borne out by the popular vote at the annual municipal elections, and the date of these was changed to the first day of the year in the hope that a larger turnout might be polled as the citizens would be free to go out and vote on that day. But the result of the change is not one of improvement, rather the reverse. It looks as if the voters prefer to stay at home and enjoy their selves on the first day.

Thursday's vote in Hamilton showed that less than one-third of the voters went to the polls. There are some 20,000 voters in the city. Of these the Mayor got only 8,000, less than one-third of the total vote. Controller Jutten, who headed the poll in the Controller vote, received the votes of only 7,500. The two mayors elected combined to give School Trustee was less than 3,000. The Toronto vote was showing no better. The World says that "There were 52,000 voters in Thursday's election, which means that about 10 per cent. of the people of Toronto govern the other 90 per cent. There are 100,000 or more voters on the lists, so that the vote polled indicates that only 52,000 of those who have the duty of governing the city in his hands, pay any attention to his duty or takes any interest in the affairs of the city he lives in."

These figures show two things, first that the first day of the new year is not a good time to hold the civic elections and that something needs to be done to make the people do their duty in these elections. They also show that the man who has the duty of electing the few who take the trouble to vote, and the men who are elected are only the choice of one-third of the electors. What's the solution?

THE FUTURE OF CANADA

There is a well-grounded fear among the people of Canada that the Imperialists have got the ear of the Dominion Government and that they will use it to the detriment of the country. The Government has decided to power to "go to the limit."

Recently the Toronto World said: "There is something sinister about the way in which imperial developments are foreshadowed from Ottawa. A despatch bearing the earmarks of inspiration intimates that the government will not "assent to a hard and fast peace," until after the imperial conference is held to determine absolutely and to express definitely the relationship existing between the Empire."

The Winnipeg Free Press, which has been a consistent supporter of the Union Government, said the other day in reference to the far east expressed by the World:

"We could say that any attempt to get the Dominion premiers to London during this coming year, or for any other purpose, will end in failure. So far as Canada is concerned there is no other than the knowledge or authority to represent the people of this country at present in a conference. We can draw definite conclusions on this question of Empire relationships. We say this advisedly, in the fact that Sir Robert Borden, who was our representative at the conference, is here to be our representative. If his health would permit, he has shown himself a wise and far-sighted factor in our Canadian interest in the world. But the fact is that no Canadian public man is competent to represent us in negotiations of this magnitude. We know what the intentions and desires of the people of Canada are in these matters and has their expression here ratified. We are not in agreement with the conference. This involves the education of the public by reason of the fact that the Canadian government has met with a check through the Commission's inability to supply it with the needed power and light."

den and other statements set together in London, they may as well be left out. It might be difficult to extricate it from the position that it had been forced into by these men without the sanction of the people. The duty of this Government is to bear before the people the nature of their intentions and then appeal to the country for support.

THE TEACHERS' SALARIES

It's efforts to satisfy the school teachers, the Internal Management Committee of the School Board has had a hard time in their efforts for increased salaries. The Committee last night decided to grant them an increase of $20 on their present salaries, with an yearly increase of $10 after that until the maximum is reached, which was placed at $1,400. The teachers had asked for $200 increase in addition to the regular $50 salary increase. The committee effected this on the first of the present year. They also asked that the maximum salary should be fixed at $1,600.

We would advise the teachers to accept this solution of the difficulty. By the time the $1,400 maximum is reached the situation may be so changed that another increase would be called for.

Brantford has two lady school teachers looking for re-election on Monday. Hamilton seems to be afraid to trust a woman on the School Board if it is afraid that she would wake up.

The Irish Nationalists are organizing to oppose the Sinn Feiners with a view to bring peace and concord in the national government to Ireland. She can only have these within the folds of the Union Jack.

The United States has begun in earnest a crusade against the Reds. Many arrests have been made in over thirty cities, and the end is not yet. The present Government by violent means have no right to protection or asylum, and it promises to either imprison or deport all such characters. Who can blame it? Self-preservation is the first law of nature.

McNeil & Stewart publishers, Toronto, has issued from the press a book that will interest not a few Hamilton people. It is entitled "The Lady With the Lamp," and is the life story of Mrs. Blanche Readington, who, as Mrs. Readington joined the Salvation Army in the early stormy days when she was a young girl in Guelph, and bravely persevered and prosecuted in the fight for freedom of speech in the streets of Canada for the Army. She was for some time the only one in the Red Cross in Hamilton, and was the head of the rescue work 'tis country, which took her all over the continent and to the United States and Newfoundland. She was closely allied with Miss Eva Bushell in this work. Her story is a touching and interesting one.

The people are looking forward to the time when all those concerns will fall under the control of the Hydro-Electric Commission. What about the Toronto street railway? Will the city continue to own and run it after its purchase, or will it hand it over to the Commission?

The future of the control of the street car system in the city of Hamilton in a few years. Will it buy or hand it over to Sir Adam Beck? Sir Adam may purchase it before the franchise expires, and it would be for the city to say whether it would leave it in his hands or take possession. The citizens have now voted twice to go to guarantee for the building of electric roads, and a system that will cost many millions will be given to the city. The London Stock Exchange is the surest thing on earth, though still unrealized.

IMPOSSIBLE?

BRAVE OLD JOHN HULL.
(New York Evening Sun)

The way Great Britain is facing seems to impress the brave old John Hull, who has been making up his mind to do something better than "muddle through." Coming Home Again
(Montreal Herald)
A big lot of what key that can be obtained from the Canadian Government is now to be had. In those circumstances there is little use in our industrial Commissioner exerting himself to get new industries for the city. The citizens have now voted twice to go to guarantee for the building of electric roads, and a system that will cost many millions will be given to the city. The London Stock Exchange is the surest thing on earth, though still unrealized.

WHILL 1920 DO?
(Buffalo Express)
And so the world enters upon a new year, merely wondering. Will the Hydro-Electric Commission have made power and light so cheap that people willfully waste it. Were it more expensive there might be enough to go round. This is a view of the matter that may have some truth in it, but the remedy, if put in force, would be very unpopular. In the meantime, let us hope that those who are in charge will do their best to keep the lights on.

The new Board of Control might inaugurate a new wrinkle in city administration. Have a weekly or fortnightly meeting with the heads of all the departments.

We notice by the old country newspapers that the Prince of Wales' younger brother is a bit of a jollier himself, when he gets on his feet to talk at a public function.

At the Young Folks Dance

Sketches from life
by Westerman.

COPYRIGHT 1919 -
MCCLURE NEWSPAPER SYNDICATE.

The up stage girl who has been taking "Art Stuff" in New York from Tokine or Chalif or some other slippery foot lizard. She keeps whispering "loosen up" to the boys and makes 'em all feel like plaster casts or bronze mummies before she finishes a dance.

"Fat" — He lingers around the punch bowl and embarrasses his modest sister by bawling out in a raucous voice at frequent intervals — "When do we eat?"

O. Warpington Skiddish wears for the first time a choker collar a stiff shirt and long trousers.

Spends the evening straightening his necktie, pulling down his vest and lifting his coat-tails and has to tell the hostess that he had a wonderful time.

Lover Lonesome — a sweet miss who has to act like a "sub" on the bench most of the evening because her mother persists in rolling her up like a twelve yearer. The boys say: "D'ya think I wanna dance with an infant."

The bashful boy who is afraid to ask the girls to dance and spends his time filling corners and wandering around the check room, etc.

Slim dances with Sweebee Snuggie, who has the ostrich huddle habit, and is scared to death for fear that she will suffocate in his arms.

Shorty, who takes the same position for dancing as he does when playing third base is completely absorbed in the struggle and never hears the bench warmers on the side lines who yell, "Whereja get that stuff? everytime he passes.

The "Cheek to cheek" dancers.

What would the modest and graceful minuetters think of the strangle hold jazz?

TEA TABLE GOSSIP

King George will review us Wednesday, Jan. 7.

—A 19-year-old auto robe was in a condition of minor, was taken from Mr. D. Gordon's car last night. The robe was valued at $25.

Owing to a death in his family, Rev. Dr. E. D. Smith, pastor of First Methodist Church to-morrow morning, Rev. (Capt.) W. B. Caswell, of Toronto University, will preach.

—A man driving a Buick Smith and Warren Hamer were slightly damaged yesterday when they collided at the corner of John and Main streets.

—A man driving a 1919 Ford, Main street east, reported this morning that a motorcycle No. 2279 was left in the rear of her home, and had no been claimed.

—The Grand Trunk Athletic Club is holding a concert and singers in the O. O. F. Temple on Monday evening. An amateur singing competition is promised in an effort to increase the get-together spirit.

—The regular weekly report of the Board of Health 28 communicable diseases, showed nineteen cases of diphtheria, nineteen cases of mumps, twenty-one cases of measles, and smallpox nine cases of chickenpox.

—Lord Fisher's "Memories" — New just received of Admiral Lord Fisher's book of memoirs, addressed to him by the author, first hand-writer so you will enjoy reading them.—Close's Bookshop, 15 West King Street.

—William McCabe, 81 Sturdi street east, was removed from the Hamilton Cotton Mills this morning in the ambulance to his home. He was admitted to the hospital, it was found that the man was suffering of a hemorrhage.

—George Hamilton, who gave his address as John street north, was arrested this morning by Detectives Crocker and Chamberlain, and is being held for the robbery of a sum of money on a charge of jumping his bail in that city.

—Central O. V. A. will hold its annual meeting on Monday evening in the Hotel Royal, James street north, at 5 o'clock. Provincial Secretary W. Turley will be present and speak, and there will be a social hour.

—Miss Florence Meekins has reported to the authorities that yesterday, while driving her automobile on King street west, she found that the rear of an automobile, her car being slightly damaged.

—At the corner of Elgin and Casson streets this morning an automobile owned by Scobles & Roberts, tobacconists, King street, was hit and driven by a Ford, owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Austin, who are belonging to the O. & H. garage, Highgate street. Scobles' car was badly damaged.

—There will be a meeting of the shareholders of the Canadian Pogeyr Journal Publishing Company, at its office, 210 Clyde Block, Hamilton, Ontario, on Tuesday, January 7, for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of other business as may be necessary.

—There will be lost in the highway the break in the fence on the highway near the Valley Inn at the point where an auto crashed through a tree in over-taking. Controller Jutten, in company with City Engineer Gray and Engineer Cummerson of the highway, inspected the spot yesterday afternoon and have arranged for speedy repairs.

NEW AGENCY

James Fisher Organizes a New Company.

After nine years service Mr. James Fisher, 41, well known Hamilton man, has resigned the position of Manager of the Toronto office of Macmillan, Nisbett & Wilson, and will shortly organize a new agency, to be known as "The James Fisher Company." Macmillan, Nisbett & Wilson, as members of the new company will be Messrs. W. H. Bowman, E. G. Reynolds and W. M. Chalmers, all of whom have been connected with Macmillan & Ferguson.

HYDRO AND D.P.T.

Hardly Likely That Deal Has Been Closed.

The report in a morning paper that the Provincial Hydro Commission had practically closed negotiations with D. P. T. & Co. for the purchase of its interests in the power plant in this city, could not be verified locally to-day by either Hydro or D. P. & T. Co.

Al Atchison, who is in close touch with this situation, expressed doubt that a long-looked-for deal had actually been consummated. It is likely he would be shortly after Sir Adam Beck's return from England. The fact that Sir Ad. is in way about now, and that the deal was closed when he was in Canada, convinced Al Atchison and other civic officials that negotiations were still pending.

PETRIE SWITCH

The application of the Petrie Manufacturing Company to lay a switch to its premises will be heard by the Dominion Railway Board at Ottawa on Jan. 7. It is believed very likely that City Collector F. B. Wadell, K. C. and City Engineer E. R. Gossman, who are in charge of the property owners affected, have raised strong objections to their property being expropriated, as it would have to be under the application of the company to be granted.

NO RECOUNT

It was stated that, inasmuch as good authority that a return of the votes for "concellor in Burton" on Jan. 3, 1919, was not asked for, A. Darke and A. L. Wright, who were members of the Township Council, Bryan will have his vote in favor of King.

Just because a fellow tries to make things as far as possible is it not reasonable why he should stretch the truth

GRAND

One of the greatest play successes in the United States last year "Friends & Enemies," scored an instant success at the Grand last evening by virtue of a good story and a good cast. The play which ran for many months both in New York and on the road was endorsed by all real Americans who saw it for it pointed out the danger of the supposed friendliness of the German Americans.

In New York are living families of Germans and the fathers of both families have been brought up as boys together in Germany. There is no great difference between them except that the country which has made him wealthy and successful has made him wealthy and successful. The other man Karl Pfeiffer, believes all he reads in the German publications and he wants the German people to know that he is a German. He is a German and his wife and the daughter of Block are engaged and the son sees his way clear to enlist but not in either the German or American Army. The son comes to tell Karl, who thinks his son is still at college. The son comes to tell him that he has got married and has to leave within twenty four hours. The father is told and he at once disowns his family.

William and June Block, the daughter of Henry Block, decide to get married before the soldiers come but the son does not go to the marriage ceremony or say goodbye to his son.

The son, the incident which changes Karl Pfeiffer from a hypothesized American to a real one. The boat on which his son has sailed is not two miles from the shore when it is torpedoed by a German submarine.

Pfeiffer has been giving money to the chief of the German secret service who has been sent to America to start propaganda which will enlighten the American people to what a really are.

Stuart, the secret service man, telephones Pfeiffer as soon as to tell him what the money he has given the cause has done.

Pfeiffer knows his son was born in Germany and wants to have revenge on Stuart. Block, who has been serving America, writes to Stuart to trap Pfeiffer who is carrying his credentials and the laid-on programme of attack.

ductions, sings opposite Miss Belge, and with Joe Miller, Fred A. Walton, Ethel Dryer, Eddie May, Gilbert St. John, Sam McRae, and others add to one of the handomest ensembles in modern musical comedy. The score of Alexander Joliet and the lyrics of Cary Duncan are said to be models of comic opera writing.

"MAYTIME."

"Maytime," the Messrs. Lee and J. Shubert's ambitious presentation of the novel musical romance, which made a sensation in London, in New York for nearly two years, will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House on Friday and Saturday of next week. This unique entertainment in both Chicago and Boston, aside from its record-breaking receipts, has established "Maytime" as the outstanding musical success of the decade on the American stage.

The story is such that it appeals to all classes of amusement seekers.

It has a human story, which enhances the music, and the story, which develops logically and entertainingly to a surprising climax, which is reached three generations apart.

The sprightly melodies in which the story has been framed, have the virtue of enhancing the play's action so smoothly that they dovetail into its progress.

LOEW'S

It's a great show that will get the season of 1920 away to a flying start at Loew's, the bill for next week reading like a lineage of the best actors in the world, the chiefest of them from the famous studios. In addition to the first appearance at Loew's of the noted comic comedian, Stan Stanley, Paul Cunningham, popular song composer, who has to his credit a long list of hits, will headline over the bill, and the supporting acts are such as to promise well for the entertainment of patrons who are looking for the best for the new year. Viola Dana, winsome little comedienne, will be seen as the star of that snappy little comedy vehicle, "Please Get Married," which will be a roaring hurricane of laughter.

Mary Pickford's speedy vehicle, making a headline screen attraction, which will be a roaring hurricane of laughter.

Miss Pickford, whose offering will be "A Theatre Patron," is well known to vaudeville fans, at least by reputation.

As a comedienne, who is starring this season in a new sketch, in vaudeville Mr. Baker seems to have all the qualities of a great artist.

He is a tragedian, whose art may be compared to that of Stan Stanely's.

Viola Dana, whose youth, beauty and singing charm have made her a great favorite with screen fans, will increase her big following here by her appearance in the title rôle of "Please Get Married," the laugh-getting farce which holds home place in the bill. The farce, as a riot of nights, and days, and weeks, will be a perfectly well-intentioned, young people believe, they are married, and set upon their wives, only to find that they are the victim of a "phoney" Miss Dana, as the third member of the cast, will be a most welcome addition to the company.

The three of them are excellent.

"Friends & Enemies" played a matinee and evening and will appear again this week. The play on its merits deserves the support of the theatre-going public.

In these jazz ridden days of the musical comedy stage, the announcement of the production of a genuine musical comedy with all the trimmings of dancing and none of the vulgarity of the Tenderloin school of entertainment is the signal for the attention of the critics. The opening night will be the affair of the afternoon, and the clerk hands them a telegram from Freds father in the city telling him that he has died.

The night for them both from that time forth consists of one long series of interviews until finally they are down and then they are in their night clothes. The next morning they are up in the bride's room where they have been delving into their trunks and the person "who married them" is not a clergyman, but a doctor. The doctor is a horrid man, and the groom beats himself with embarrassment and disgrace. The doctor is gathered in the room with the bride and the groom, and prepares to wed her. Then comes a raft of complications, and an ending that is satisfactory as it is pretty and amusing.

"Please Get Married" is sure to amuse an audience harbored of laughs. It will recall the words of an admiring critic, who said of it, "We had been asked to look through it to make the personal acquaintance of a man who has made things worse and twisted and tortured us with it, but we have an opportunity which seldom comes, this way—but that's what will be offered. Lester Crawford and Helen Broderick are each as distinct in make-up and characterization as any couple ever seen on the stage. Mr. McGraw leaves the stage as Fagin, the villainous tramp and burglar of Oliver Twist, and returns as the poor girl who loves Bill Sikes, and is on throughout the entire play a most delightful character, engrossed for a particular role. Mr. McGraw leaves the stage as Fagin, the villainous tramp and burglar of Oliver Twist, and La Salle are seen and heard in songs and foolishness. The scenes are sure with due regard for the plot, and the curtain falls on a happy ending."

GRIESBACH'S SCHEME FOR ARMY SERVICE

Draft of His Plan for General Canadian Military Service League.

ITS BENEFITS

Objects, Organization and Effects Shown—Men Available.

Toronto, Jan. 3.—Brig.-Gen. W. A. Griesbach, D. S. O., Canadian member of the House of Commons for West Edmundston, has drawn up a scheme which is sent throughout the country, and which contains a draft of Brig.-Gen. Griesbach's plan for a Universal Military Service League in Canada. Brig.-Gen. Griesbach was commander of the First Canadian Division, and served under Gen. F. W. Louis. The memorandum, as prepared by Brig.-Gen. Griesbach, is as follows:

To secure the adoption by the people of Canada of the following principles:

(a) That all male citizens of Canada are liable to give military service in time of war.

(b) That all male citizens of Canada shall be trained in time of peace to give military service to the State in time of war.

(c) The embodiment of these principles in the law and regulation of Canada.

(d) Local associations, wherever they may exist in Canada;

(e) Provincial executives elected by delegates from local associations in provincial convention assembled;

(f) Dominion executives elected by delegates from local associations in dominion convention assembled;

(g) The Dominion executive shall be the supreme governing body in Canada;

(h) The provincial executive shall be the supreme governing body within the province, and shall be particularly charged with the organization and direction of the work and objects of the league within the province.

METHODS.

(a) The organization of local associations, Universal Military Service League of Canada, and the perfecting of the organization of provincial and dominion associations;

(b) The education of the people of Canada by means of the printed and spoken word upon the subject of universal military service;

PLAN SUGGESTED.

The following plan is one of many that may be suggested, and altered and amended from time to time as the discussion progresses.

Junior Cadets.—From 12 to 14—To receive instruction in physical drill and military exercises; to be subject to medical inspection, and to be given special training and treatment for any physical defects that may be found; to extend their knowledge and medical care to be under the supervision of the schools of the provinces.

From 14 to 18—To receive instruction in physical drill and military exercises; to be subject to medical inspection, and to be given special training and treatment for any physical defects that may be found; to exist, such instruction, and medical care to be under the supervision of the military authorities of the provinces.

There shall be established in Canada a series of local training depots, each with barracks and training grounds. Such depots shall give four courses in the year—symmetric, each course for three months which is most convenient to him; shall join a depot, and shall receive a military training.

Under the completion of this course, the recruit will be drawn to a unit of the active army or a branch which he has selected and located at a point most convenient to the recruit.

At the age of twenty, the recruit will be given a course of training with the unit to which he belongs, and will remain with the same unit at the age of twenty-two.

Having reached the age of 22, the soldier now passes to the First Reserve.

From 22 to 30 the soldier will once each year fire a course in musketry and submit himself for medical examination.

From 30 to 45 the soldier will be in the Second Reserve.

From 45 to 60 he will be in the Third Reserve.

It is recommended that the medical examination and course of musketry above referred to will take one day each year, and that the soldier will, therefore, have given six months and seven days of his life to military training, apart from the training received in the cadet corps.

OFFICERS' TRAINING.

The training of officers will follow the same course as that of private soldiers until the completion of the course.

At the completion of the depot training a soldier has gained the rank of corporal, and is entitled to be in the unit to which he has been drafted; he shall then be eligible to apply for the right to be given an entrance examination to the officer's class.

Should he be successful in passing this entrance examination he will then be admitted to an officer's course of training.

Mr. J. H. Bégin, of the Toronto, Ontario, branch, recently received instructions from Ottawa that no one may first pay wages of $1 a gallon plus 1 per cent per war tax. The soldier remains in the unit until the end of the course, and has the option of checking a possible vast importation of liquor from the United States while there are no laws, all dealers and the Caterhouse Club, Kingston, Canada.

AN ESTIMATE.

50,000 men in depots first year, 50,

000 men in depots and 50,000 men in units second year; 50,000 men in depots and 100,000 men in units third year; 50,000 men in depots and 150,000 men in units fourth year. In the tenth year, there would be 50,000 men in depots, 150,000 men in units, 300,000 men in the First Reserve.

The above estimate is subject to the following conditions:

(a) The number of men reaching the age of 19 might be 100,000.

(b) The number of men selected for training would be reduced by medical examinations, or

(c) By ballot, necessitated by limited money appropriation.

The latter method, of course, is objectionable because of lack of universality of training.

COST OF MILITARY SERVICE.

In 1918 Canada spent $20,000,000 on a national force of 500,000, which is a matter of fact, was 18,000 below strength.

In 1919 Switzerland spent under a system of training not unlike ours outlined a sum of money exceeding $3,000,000 on a military establishment.

In 1914 Switzerland mobilized in three days, half a million men, armed, equipped and trained for war.

Six months later the members of the First Canadian Division, approximately 19,000 men, were mobilized.

ADVANTAGES OF TRAINING.

(a) Instantly increased efficiency over any system that we have ever had in Canada.

(b) An improvement in physique, training, patriotism, discipline and manners of the nation.

(c) The selection and training of officers on a scientific basis, whereby the best brains and those most qualified for leadership would have the opportunity of fulfilling the Canadian army in time of war, with equal opportunities to all male citizens to qualify themselves for leaders and responsibilities of leadership.

ECONOMIC OF SCHEME.

(a) Under such conditions as above outlined, soldiers should not receive more than twenty-five cents a day for pay, which would be bound in immediately securing for war soldiers who are unmarried and for the married men, a sum effecting tremendous savings in the matter of separation allowances, patriotic fund, and insurance premiums.

(b) The Dominion executive shall be the supreme governing body in Canada.

(c) Provincial executive shall be the supreme governing body within the province, and shall be particularly charged with the organization and direction of the work and objects of the league within the province.

(d) The Dominion executive shall be the supreme governing body in Canada.

Boston Fans Could Get Accustomed to Watching Team Play Without Ruth

Red Sox Rooters Survived Passing of Carrigan Speaker and Wood from Club

Prompted by the unprofitable actions of Babe Ruth, several members of the Boston Red Sox whose contracts with the club did not expire at the close of last season have notified the owner of the club that unless a substantial increase is forthcoming they will not join the team next spring. Ruth's refusal to re-sign means he gets $30,000 for next season's work, the demands of the unreasonable players have not been heard by the owner of the team or the outside.

For the sake of the game, the owner's present attitude toward Ruth and other members of the club does not seem to be particularly wise and who are camouflaging for increases should not change one iota and if when the time for the new contracts come around, Ruth finds them absent from the camp the sympathies of the fans will be with the club owner and not with those who regard contracts as scrap of paper.

If the home run champion makes good his right to leave the club he will be a bad loss not only in Boston, but in every other city on the American League circuit. The singer's claim to fame is that he has the greatest drawing cards in the game and cannot be denied, but Ruth or any other major league player is more important than he.

The Boston Red Sox, then, triumphed in the world's series battles without Ruth's assistance and it is possible for them to do so again.

Even as big a figure as the record smashing "batman" is, the baseball world would not be the same if he did not make less than $20,000.

He might, however, take some time for the Red Sox players to get used to the idea of playing without Babe in the games, but they have done so before.

The team never had a more popular manager than Bill McKechnie and he was the shrewdest and most successful manager the Red Sox had, and when the pastime of baseball is the love of Finsay Park would never recover. But they did and Carrigan's team is a solid unit.

McKechnie, however, is still here and included in the list of players who wore Boston uniforms and who were every bit as popular as Ruth.

Red Sox rooters are like Ruth.

They are more than nothing less.

When I signed last spring, which has two more years to run, and stands pat in his return, play for less than $20,000, I can't wait to see what he is as as suspicious as those of the other idols.

The home run king will be placed on the shelf and Ruth will not be eligible to play on any organized baseball other than the Boston Americans. Babe will
